

Melinda Hardiman

January 26, 2012

Melinda (Mindy) Hardiman, a 25-year resident of Gwinnett and Hall Counties, passed away on Jan. 26 from anoxic encephalopathy. She was 55. Mindy was preceded in death by her sister, Candice Anderson, and her father, Murray Anderson, both of Cumming. She is survived by her mother, Ellen Anderson, of Hoschton, brother, Terry Anderson, and his wife Denny, of Lake Ridge, VA, sister, Lisa Kopro, and her husband, Tim, of Lawrenceville, very special friend Bill Oberholtzer, of Oakwood, and dogs Boo and Leroy and cat Buffy, as well as nieces, nephews and cousins.

Mindy owned and operated Paddywacks, a gift shop in Buford, from 1995-2008. She lived in the Village at Deaton Creek, in Hoschton, from 2009 until her death. She had a boundless love for dogs and cats, having owned dozens herself over the years, most of them strays that she rescued and provided a happy home for.

Donations toward Mindy's memorial fund can be sent to her sister, Lisa Kopro, at 2302 Paper Chase Dr., Lawrenceville, GA, 30043. All funds received will be used toward the purchase of enhancements for the Deaton Creek Dog Park, such as trees/landscaping or dog exercise stations, and the Humane Society. A dedication ceremony will be held on Saturday, March 24, 2012 at 4:00 p.m. at the Dog Park in the Village at Deaton Creek, Hoschton, GA.
