“ Mama Mercy as I affectionately call you, took care of me in Kumasi Bohyen Alpha and Omega school. A woman of good heart who will give the little she has when you ask for it. The encouragement you gave me anytime I call you. I remember in Gethsemane Methodist church Bohyen, when I always run to you during Sunday school service for you to give me coins for toffee and biscuits. I remember after church when we close and we come home you will do gari soakings and milk and groundnuts for Asantewaa and I while you prepares dinner. In this moment of reflection, I find myself enveloped in a tapestry of memories waving with the threads of your love and wisdom. Your presence though physically distant, remain vivid in my heart. The echoes of your laughter and the warmth of your embrace linger, offering solace in the midst of sorrow. Your life was a testament to strength, kindness and grace. The impact you made on those around you is immeasurable. Your guidance has shaped me, your love has sustained me and your spirit continues to inspire me. Though you may have bid us farewell, your legacy endures in the lives you touched. As I navigate the path ahead without your physical presence, I hold onto the lessons you taught me, the values you instilled, and the love you shared so generously. Your memory is a beacon of light in dark moments, a reminder of the beauty of your soul and the depth of your love. In the tapestry of my life, your thread will forever be intertwined, a symbol of enduring love and cherished memories. Rest peacefully dear mama, knowing that your spirit lives on in the hearts of those who love you.

With love and gratitude that transcends time

“ Mama Mercy was like a second mother to me. Always there with kind words of encouragements. She had a way of making every visit to my home feel special. Her generosity knew no bounds, especially when it came to the kitchen, where she would eagerly roll up her sleeves and help without hesitation. Her presence brought warmth and comfort, and her spirit of selflessness and love will remain in my heart forever. Mama Mercy, you will be dearly missed, but your kindness and memories will live on in all of us.
