“ Dear Michael,
I will always remember the time we visited you and family in Georgia. I enjoyed it very much. I wish we could have lived closer to you all and grown up together. Many years later, I am glad you met and knew my son. Thank you, your cousin Linda

“ On behalf of the membership of the First Baptist Church in Beechgrove TN, we extend our deepest sympathy. Although I never met Michael, I felt that I knew him through the love and admiration that Danny and his family had for his brother. Our prayers are with you during this time and always.
In Christ,
David and Cherry Larkin
