“ Bob and I have great memories of Mike. I was afraid of him at 15. Came to love him after you married him. We had many hours playing games in your apartment in mineola. Also traveling to Rhode Island which Mike claimed to know the way but of course we had to ask many people to give us directions. My family loved Mike with all their hearts. We will miss him. I hope he is having a meal in a Chinese restaurant in haven.

Mike was a dear friend of both Jimmy and I. We loved him and looked forward to seeing him outside his house as he greeted and talked to everyone who walked or rode by. He was one of the first neighbors who we met when we moved to Deaton Creek. We immediately had a connection as we came from NY. Mike was so caring . He would always ask about how you and your family were doing. His faith was unwavering. We will miss him dearly.
