“ Thanks for being a great big brother. I will always remember our younger years and all the fun we had growing up. Thanks for taking me under your wing. Whether it was playing sports, going to sporting events, listening to music or going to concerts, we always had a blast. I will cherish those memories forever and glad we got to see a few more concerts together over the last decade. My heart goes out to Patty and little Mike. RIP, my friend.

“ This is a time of celebration of life even though it was shortened by a difficult illness. Grieving is a very difficult time especially when our Good Lord takes a loved one from us. Unfortunately we do not make these decisions. However, we will all be together again one day. Until then Gods plan is now laid out for Michael.
