“ Michael was the kindest person we have ever known. We will miss him dearly. We will miss all his stories of days gone by. He had a gift of telling stories that were very long and often followed by lots of chuckles!! He was a wonderful husband, father, brother, brother in law, son in law, uncle and friend. Our hearts are breaking especially for Kim, Chris and Madi. We love you all so much. Peaceful rest for you Michael until we meet again 🙏🙏 Love, Cal and Rick 🥺

“ Michael (Mickey to me) was my cousin and my first playmate in life. We had creative fun as children and insightful, deep conversations in our youth along the road to discovering who we would be as adults. He was always kind and listened as if you were the only person on earth. Happy Trails, my childhood buddy, rest well.

“ When i think of uncle Michael the number one thing i think of us all his stories. There was never a family gathering where uncle mike didn't share a nice memory or hilarious story from his past. Hearing him make himself laugh towards the end of a funny story always cracked me up. Such a kind, funny, and caring man. Thank you for all the stories uncle Mike. Love and miss you.

I knew Michael as Mickey as I grew up with him in Texas. Even though I haven't seen or talked with him in many years when I think of those days back in Garland it seems like about three months ago. Very nice memories. RIP Mickey
