“ Mike was a good man. He and I became friends in 1977 where we played softball on the Reliance team. Even though we worked in the same industry we went in different directions. Occasionally,, we would have lunch and talk about the old times and the industry. I almost went to work with Mike in the 80's but health insurance for the wife was questionable but we remained friends.

I just found out about Mike and send my condolences to his family. Will always consider him a friend and a man of character. Sorry for your loss. Enjoy Heaven Mike!

“ Mike Angel was, quite simply, one of the finest people I’ve ever known, and a true friend for many years. We met at a summer job in a grocery store, I was probably 19, he a year younger. It didn’t take long before we were playing tennis or golf whenever we both had time off. Mike and I took golf trips together, punctuated by a tennis match after the day’s golf was done. He loved deep sea fishing and we did that once. We lost touch for quite a few years after I moved away, but reconnected a few years ago. The friendship hadn’t changed, and he was the Mike I’d always known. I know he fought the cancer as hard as anyone could, and I am relieved that he is at rest now.
