“ Dear Mrs. Peacock and family,

My heart is grieved because of the loss of your loved one. I haven't met you personally but I know we are truly sisters in the Lord Jesus Christ. I have been attending Dacula Church of God. I have enjoyed all of the music and fellowship there. When one of God's children grieves all of us His children grieve with each other. Please remember my prayers have been and will continue to be with all of you. May God shelter all of you in His precious arms and comfort you in this difficult time.

*Love in Christ,
Linda Barrs*

“ Dear Rosemary and family,
When we heard the news of Mike's death, we experienced mixed emotions. We were saddened by our loss, but at the same time, we were happy that Mike had gotten his permanent healing and had won his final battle with pain.
Our schedule has been crammed full for the past week and we weren't able to get to the funeral home to pay our regards, but you have been and still are in our prayers.
May God wrap His arms of comfort around you and sustain you in this time of sorrow.
We love you and are praying for you.

“ Even though our faith tells us we should rejoice that our loved one is with the God it is still difficult for those left behind not to feel sad and lonely. May His peace and comfort of friends see you through this difficult time. We're praying for you and your family.
