“ My friend in grade, middle and high school. One of the funniest guys I ever knew. Tim still is my friend, now he's resting in heaven. Tim and I were in a play together in the 5th grade. The play was ' a Christmas Carol' . Tim would come over to my house after school and we would rehearse our lines together. Sometimes I would go to Tim's house where he taught me the game 'Stratego'. I have only great memories of Tim.

“ Timmy had the kindest and giving of souls. He was like a "little brother" although he and I were the same age. I remember going over to Teenie and Gaylon's house to play Rook and sometimes he would sit in for Gaylon if he wasn't there. Sometimes he would join us when we all went out to eat.

I remember he went with all of us to Nashville. My Aunt who ran the Hermitage Hotel was very impressed with Timmy. How he was a gentleman, gracious and a southern gent as she called him.

He loved his Momma. Timmy was her transportation to just about everywhere especially taking her out to eat. She depended on him for a lot of things and she her.

When Tom Ed had the Ribeye restaurant, Tim was a waiter and a very good one at that. He loved his "Uncle" Tom Ed. They had a special relationship that they shared.

Timmy is now with his parents and Tom Ed too. I suppose they are sitting around a golden table playing Rook while they wait for the rest of us to join them some day.

I miss Teenie, Gaylon and now adding Timmy to that list. They were like parents to me and always treated me as family instead just someone's wife.

Love you all,
