“ May God give you peace and comfort during this most difficult time. God promises to remove the pain and heartaches of death (Rev 21:3,4). Thus Jesus said that we will see them again, he even showed us what he will do when he raised Lazarus and others. As you reflect on Michelle reflect on God's promises. What a precious hope!

“ *Rosemary and Family,
Our deepest sympathy is with you and your family.
May the memories that were shared, and the love that was given be a comfort to you in days to come.
May the Lord wrap His arms around you and give you peace.
We know this verse is so true for her.
[2Timothy 4:7-8 KJV] 7 I have fought a good fight,
I have finished [my] course, I have kept the faith:
8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day:
and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
You are in our thoughts and prayers,
Love,*

“ I am saddened at the loss of Michelle. She was a lovable and sweet young lady. I don't have the words to express to you Rosemary. As a mother, this has to be the hardest thing you can face. Michael as a brother I know that you will miss Michelle. Your family was a lovable family and I am so sorry that this has happened to you. I pray that God will comfort you as his word promised us. We know that Michelle is a rose planted in Heaven's beautiful garden. We have the assurance of being together with our loved ones again. I feel that it won't be long before we will be reunited with them. May God keep you close to him in the days ahead. I will keep you in my prayers and I want you to know that we love you and care about you. If you need anything, please let me know.

“ I am so sorry for your great loss. Michelle was a great co-worker and friend. We spent many a nights at work talking while she waited for her mom to pick her up. She truly was a light at our job at Great Beginnings. Michelle loved her toddlers in her class. She was a natural when it came to working with children. I pray God gives you the peace and understanding for your great loss. I love you Rosemary and thank you for sharing Michelle with us.

“ My heart is broken from the loss of my co-worker and friend Michelle. She was a very inspirational person. She loved her children in her class and took very good care of them. I miss my nightly talks at work. Rosemary thank you for sharing your wonderful daughter with me.
