We just wanted to let you know how very sorry we are for your loss. We will be praying for all the family during this time. She was such a loving and caring lady and always could bring a smile to your face during the roughest times. We know that our parents Shelba and Gene Gravitt thought a lot of her. Heaven gained a beautiful angel.

“ I bring many prayers for my Bell family in the loss of Aunt Mildred as she was so fondly known at my house. Aunt Mildred has had a lasting impression on my life, as I look back at her as one of my very favorite people. Her wonderful sense of humor and never ending infectious smile will forever be in my heart. Anyone ever around her can easily have fond memories, as I do. As miles have separated us over the years, I feel as close to my BELL roots as ever. May God BLESS you all.

*Love and Prayers,
Sherry (BELL) Sanford and Family*
