“ My sincerest condolences to you and your family. Always remember your wife in good spirits and celebrate and cherish your memories rather than mourning her. She is in a better place now and will always be shining down on you and your family. I wish you a Merry Christmas through this hardship and that your family comes together and comforts one another and remembers her for all that she was and gave. I do not personally know your family or wife but am sure she was a beautiful person. My sincerest regards and blessings to your family. God rest her soul, may she rest in peace.

“Mindy, I hear your voice in my head and it makes me smile and it makes me cry all at the same time. It doesn't seem real that I will never get to talk to you again. You are going to be so very missed. Your energy, your dedication, your determination and your spirit. Luckily for us your spirit will be here to help guide us along. To Mindy's family, I am sending you all prayers and hugs. I wish I was closer so I could physically wrap my arms around you and tell you in person how grateful I am to have known and worked with Mindy and to thank you for sharing her with us during the day. She made me laugh, she made me proud to work with her, and she never let anything stand in her way. I absolutely loved that about her. Please accept my sincere sympathy on the loss of such an amazing lady.

“ Oh Mindy...the Lord must have needed you to be an Angel to have taken you so sudden and so young. I have so enjoyed working with you and loved your kind spirit. You always made me smile. You will be so missed. Hope you are smiling down on us all. I will see you in Heaven my sweet dear work friend. Rest In Peace. At least now you dont have to deal with us crabby underwriters anymore...LOL. I know that would have made you laugh.
