“ I will always love my wonderful cousin Jane Lancaster! Jane had a way of making me feel so very special when I would visit her as a teenager. She would jump up with a big smile and shout "Danny" and run to me and give me big hug that said without a doubt: "I love You and I am so very glad to see you!" My name is Dan and most people irritate me when they call me "Danny" but not Jane...She can always call me "Danny." When I get to heaven I fully expect her to shout "Danny" and run to me and give me a big tight hug...that will be such a nice welcome! I Love You Jane..."Danny."

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. My thoughts and prayers are with the Lancaster family and friends. Most of us have had to endure the sorrow of losing a loved one in death. What helped me the most was prayer and faith in Jehovah God's (Psalm 83:18) promises like found here at John 6: 40 and it tells us: "For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who recognizes the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life, and I will resurrect him on the last day." God's kingdom that Jesus taught us to pray for at Matt. 6: 9, 10 will bring about these wonderful promises soon here on earth (Psalm 37:9-11, 29), including the resurrection. None of us are guaranteed tomorrow, but we are all guaranteed a resurrection. (John 5:28, John 11:23-25, Acts 24:15) I pray it will bring you comfort to please watch this faith strengthening video: "Can The Dead Really Live Again?"
