“ Several years ago as my daughter was in the checkout at Walmart, Monroe wondered over to where I was waiting with my 3 grandchildren. Nancy joined him as she finished with checkout. I have never seen a man be so personable with toddlers and a baby. The children warmed to him immediately as he asked them questions and encouraged them. Nancy joined in talking to the children like they were their on grandchildren. When my daughter joined us she talked with the couple like they were family or old friends.

We enjoyed those minutes with this wonderful couple, and I began to wonder if we might be entertaining angles. As we headed to our car, my daughter asked me who they where. I answered, "I didn't know". Later that night as I was thinking about the encounter, it came to me who he was. I called my sister and described what had happened and the looks of the man...and she says "oh that's Monroe Hopper". The picture on this obit looks just as he looked that day. I know your family was blessed to have this man as husband and Father. And I'm sure Jesus welcome him to heaven with a "well done my good and faithful servant."

“ There are people in your life who forever change you. Monroe and Nancy are some of those people in my life. When I think back to my young innocent days they are a part of almost every memory. They feed me and listened to me and shared their lives and home with me. When I remember the great trials I've survived they were there. Their support and love helped carry me through, I really don't know how I would have survived without them. Thank you for all the memories, I am overcome with thoughts of you and your family. Love you!

“ I remember years ago attending Sardis Methodist Church with Monroe and Nancy and the girls. This is such a wonderful family who everyone loves. I would stop by their house with a good friend, Joan Duncan Cason, and we would have the greatest time hanging out with them. Monroe was such a kind, friendly man and he will be missed.

“ Heaven is just getting crowded these days but Mr. Hooper is making everyone laugh! I am so sorry Miss Nancy to see that Mr. Hooper has left this earth because I know you will miss him. So will I. I so looked forward to visits with you both whenever you had to come and see us at Tri Cty. Much love to you. He was one of a kind and I know we are not supposed to have favorite patients, but golly, he sure was one of mine. It is with my most sincere condolences.
