“ To the family of Mr. Barker,

I am so very sorry for the loss of you dear and beloved husband, father, grandfather, and friend. May you find comfort in knowing that your dear one is safe in the memory of God, who will remember every detail about him and bring him back again.

May you find comfort in the God who comforts is all and will make you firm.?-2 Thessalonians 2:16, 17.

“ Please except my condolences and know that you are not alone against this common enemy, death. In fact good provides comfort in the face of this devastating moment. In 1corinthians 15:26 says, "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." God will do away with this enemy. He assures us in Revelation 21:4,"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Even more than this he promises that we have the chance to see our loved ones again. John 5:28,29 says, "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Have faith in God's word.
