“ It hurts me to hear Mr. Bud is no longer with us but I know he is reunited with Mrs. Dot. I'm sad due to he was a grandfather to me for several years. First met him when he walked into subway with Dot for some subs and well the rest is history. They both became great friends to me and after Dot was taken from him I couldn't help but want to watch over him. Years later he was hurt and was taken to nursing home so he could heel probably but I then started to visit him there with my nephews and sister as I saw little kids brought him so much joy. For 10 years Mr. Bud would bring me flowers or something he grew in his garden every Saturday as I would make his sandwich he would tell me about his week. Before traveling to Europe this summer I went to visit Him and I told me I would go up the stairs of the Eiffel Tower for him as I know he visited when he was in the Cold War. however I didn't know he would be gone before I could show him all the pictures and souvenirs I bought for him. Mr. Bud family , my condolences to you. You had an amazing person that I grew such love for. I'm sorry I couldn't reach out sooner as I just found out about his death. We were going to visit him for the Thanksgiving as I got back from Europe not too long ago. If you could please let me know where he is buried so I could go visit his grave. I would really appreciate it. Again I'm sorry for you loss. He will be missed.

“ We were sorry to learn that Mr. "Bud" had passed away. He was a wonderful man and will be missed by so many. The reunion will be a more sober affair without his laughter and tales of family history. Due to other committments we were unable to attend visitation or the funeral, but we will be in pray for the family during this sad time. With love and deepest sympathy....

“ I just found out about Bud. He was one of the first people I met when I moved to Buford in the early 80's and of course, he was my propane guy. A very nice, normal, good guy. Thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends. ML

“ Gayle and my thoughts and prayers are with the family. Bud will be missed by all of you. Always enjoyed being around him at church or on a jobsite. He's in heaven cutting up with the other Pughs that preceded him. Sorry I did not get by the funeral home as its Saturday night and I just saw the obit.

“ Dearest Runnette,
It is with great sadness to learn the passing of your dear father, Bud. I recall our last conversation as we reminisced about your mom and dad.
