“ Terry, Eileen,

I thnk that I met June on only two or three occasions. But I recall her to be a kind, very pleasant person with a positive attitude toward life.

These are fine qualities for a mother, or for that matter, for anyone.

Plainly, she will be dearly missed.

“ I always remember "Aunt June" being so creative with pottery and gardening. My early memories in Park Forest was being outside with June by her garden and she gave me fresh strawberries she had grown.
