“ The picture does not look like the special aunt I have. Gaynelle was my mother's younger sister. Gaynelle was a very special person to me & my family. I would have chosen a better picture of my special aunt. I know in my heart she would not like the picture!! Gaynelle has a place in my heart forever. My aunt was always smiling. I am very upset with this picture!!!

I agree with you Peggy! Gaybelle, as I affectionately called her, would be embarrassed by it. She & Rex were Emergency Home Receiving parents for Fulton/DeKalb counties. Kids would stay up to 30 days while courts, social workers determined the next steps for their futures. Gaynelle dealt with kids who had violent backgrounds by choosing LOVE over anything else to demonstrate how much she cared about EACH kid. She was my mentor, my mother-figure and my BFF. She & Rex gave me my first real job at CPM in East Point & I learned so much from her. I loved her more than I thought possible to love anyone. She could make that happen! In five days she would have been 93 years young <3.

Her kindness was legendary, her voice soothing & calming to hear and she exemplified the Love of Our Lord Jesus <3 <3 <3

“We are all very sad to hear the passing of Bart's mother. Bart and Toni made all efforts possible to settle her into a peaceful and comfortable place before her passing. She was certainly fortunate to have such a good son and Daughter in law to take special care for her.

3/8/22 - When talking to her by phone from Texas, she would always brag about how thoughtful Bart's wife Toni was. She was also very proud of her grandson, who she talked about every time we spoke. Going to church with her grandson meant a lot to her. Bart was approximately 8 years old when I first met him and his brother, Rex Jr. back in 1964-65. As a kid in the juvenile system, many of us were very envious of their boys! Us kids wanted Rex & Gaynelle for our parents too. Their love was special and unselfish. I miss them both but I know excellent Life Lessons weren't lost on all the kids that passed through their home and hearts <3
