

Nancy A. Williams

February 1, 2020

On Saturday, February 1, 2020, Nancy A. Williams of Alpharetta, GA passed away at the age of 78. Nancy was born on May 18, 1941 in Oak Park, IL, to Steve and Alice Francekovic. She married Raymond A. Williams, I on November 23, 1961 in Hollywood, FL, but lived in the Atlanta area for most of her life, where she worked as an administrative assistant for Nicolon until she retired in 2001. Nancy loved to travel, knit, read, garden, and cook, all of which she did exceptionally well. She had a passion for living life fully. While cancer may have consumed her body, she did not allow it to dictate her life or touch her soul. All whose lives she touched carry a part of her with them, a never-ending legacy.

She had two children, Raymond A. Williams, II and Dr. Christine W. Tuttle, and six grandchildren, Sean Patrick Diffley, Elizabeth Williams Findley, Sarah Riebel, Ryan Diffley, Haley Nicole Williams, and Ian Diffley; great grandson, Aiden Patrick Diffley. She is also survived by daughter-in-law Laura D. Williams and son-in-law Curtis W. Tuttle.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to St. Aidan's Episcopal Church, Alpharetta, GA, Nancy's much loved church home.

Tribute Wall

“ Nancy A. Williams

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM

“ My condolences to Nancy's family. I didn't know Nancy long, but she touched my heart with her genuine kindness. Whenever I saw Nancy she gave me a hug. I will always remember how she embraced life, and didn't let the cancer take her joy.

Nancy Babcock - February 04, 2020 at 12:00 AM