“ J.W., Gail, Joan and familygetting to know your mom and care for her was a huge blessing in my life....she sure loved her sweetheart of 67 and a half years. I can not imagine how difficult this will be after having her here so long with you. But remind yourself she is free...not sick at all and will be waiting on the rest of you. Take comfort in the days to come in Psalm 139. She seemed to enjoy that a lot when i would get one of those special smiles. She is a beautiful lady and is leaving a great legacy to all she blessed in this life.

“ Mr. Bailey, Gail and Joan

*I am so sorry to hear about Nell. She was such a precious kind person. I'll never forget how she helped take care of mother when they were going to meet with their school friends.
I sure did want to come by for visitation but I'm really sick right now. May God give you the peace you need right now.*

“Dear Bailey Family: I am very sorry to hear of the loss of your dearly loved Nell Bailey. I am a minister whose parents have fallen asleep in death. My wife's parents are also asleep in the grave.

At John 11:11 Jesus said Lazarus was sleeping in death. So the vast majority of those who have died are still in the grave. It is comforting to know that the dead are in God's memory, awaiting a resurrection back to live on earth in paradise. The resurrection at John 11:1-44 was an example of what will soon take place around the world. If heaven was the place for Lazarus, then Jesus would not have resurrected him back to earth and taken him from a heavenly reward.

Please read in your Bibles the words of Psalms 37:9-11 which highlight earthly blessings for the majority of mankind. Only a few will go to heaven to rule as kings and priests with Jesus in a heavenly government noted at Revelation 7:4-8. Revelation 7:9 identifies the great multitude or great crowd of possibly billions of people who will soon continue the work on earth where Adam and Eve left off. What a great hope to someday welcome Mrs. Bailey from the grave to live on earth with no pain or sickness according to Isaiah 33: 24. I pray these words bring some comfort to your family.
