“ Nikki, my best friend for so long. This world will never be the same without your sweet soul. I will always keep memories of you in my heart. My heart is missing a piece without you. Your beautiful children who are so sweet and wonderful just like you, i will always check on them. When they are older i will share beautiful memories of you with them. They are in the best hands with your beautiful mother and sisters. You left such an impression on this world, I hope we honor your memory every day in remembering what you taught everyone... to love and never stop loving. Until we meet again baby girl.

“ My condolences are extended to the family and friends of Nikki, may she rest in peace. I've had the pleasure watching Nikki change her life while residing for 6 mos with Mothers Making A Change residential program. Nikki was determined to get well and have her children with her again. As a client support worker I was honored to assist Nikki in reaching her goals. I will miss her smile. Rest in eternal peace. May God watch over your babies until you meet again

“ My heart goes out to your family, and I'm still in shock over this news.

Nikki was one of my best friends all through high school. We spent our days dancing, singing, tanning in the sun, and just being goofballs. She was the sweetest, kindest person I knew and always had a love for children. She was constantly trying to get me to be nicer to my younger siblings and I could never believe the love there was between her and her sisters. That same love can be seen in any photo of her with her little ones.

I was so excited for her lately. She was happy, doing well, and her wisdom and wit were making appearances on Facebook again.

We used to celebrate our birthdays together, with them being so close. I'm glad her last one was so wonderful and from now on, I'll remember the beautiful angel with the largest wings watching over us all on my own, as the day Nikki went to be with the Lord.
