

Octaris Fenelus

March 6, 1942 - January 2, 2026

Octaris Fenelus (1942- 2026)

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Octaris Fenelus, who departed this life on January 2, 2026. Octaris was born on March 6, 1942 in Berard, Haiti, to his loving parents, Aglecie Desir and Murtill Fenelus. He was 83 years old at the time of his passing. His legacy endures through his cherished family, including his devoted children and beloved grandchildren. Octaris was blessed with a devoted and loving wife, Siglena Fenelus, and lived a life marked by quiet strength, humility, and faithful dedication to those around him. Known for his unique character and introspective nature, he found immense joy in music during his downtime. A proud soldier of the Haitian Army, Octaris made a meaningful difference in the lives of many through his service and kindness. He also leaves behind his siblings, who mourn his loss deeply: his brothers Feret Fenelus, Salnave Fenelus, Jerome Fenelus, and Mertyl Fenelus, along with his only sister, Lerana Fenelus. Octaris is survived by his children: Jeanot Fenelus, Gerard Fenelus, Octavius Fenelus, Jefferson Fenelus, Octalet Fenelus, and Nedjeda Fenelus. He was especially loved by his grandchildren, who will honor and carry forward his memory: Erika Fenelus, Dyanna Fenelus, Jonash Fenelus, Cattleya Fenelus, Laura Fenelus, Samuel Fenelus.

While Octaris preferred a life away from the spotlight, his love for family and passion for music, left a lasting impression on all who knew him. Though his physical presence will be deeply missed, his legacy will remain forever in our hearts rest in peace .
