“ *To the family of Ollige.....
My Mother, Mildred Blan, worked at Sanders Furniture together with Edna and Ollige for many many years on Main Street Buford. He and Edna have always been special people to our family. We have paintings hanging in our home that Edna painted for us many years ago. We think and speak of Ollige and Edna often. We are sorry for your loss, but now....Edna, Ollige and Mother are selling furniture again and balancing the corporate check books together in heaven. And too this day I hate to dust because of Ollige. He always made me dust the furniture after school on the days I had to go to work with mother for a few hours. What a sweet, sweet memory of him.*
