“ Opal was such a good person and I know that her family will miss her. I remember how she used to drive the car for for some older ladies in the community like my grandmother, Mattie Puckett, her mother-in-law, Gladys Parks, Dorothy Welch and Daisy Cooper, and they came home from these outtings so happy.

“ Opal has been my beloved neighbor for 25 years. The Parks family has been and is very special to the Banks family. I have great memories of Mrs. Opal from her learning to play the piano to her giving me her recipe for canning green beans. She has been an important part of our community and she will be greatly missed. Our loss is her gain. Please know that you are all in my prayers.

“ I will always remember Opal's laugh, and all the family stories: the old days of her and Mama going shopping (downtown Rich's) in high heels, no less, then the man on the road home getting annoyed at them for talking so much and not watching their speed.

But my favorite memory of Opal is when Chase was just a little thing, and he would ask to walk the short path between our houses to go see "Offal". I would watch him walk through the field, and knock on her door. I always would tell her, "Now don't be giving him candy." She would call later on, and and tell me Chase was on his way back to my house. Of course, when he got home, he would have chocolate on his face, and candy in his pocket!!
