

Owen Charles Lichtenwalner

Owen Charles Lichtenwalner, 81, of Suwanee, GA, died March 7, 2019.

Owen was born October 30, 1937, in Seattle, WA, to John J. and Irene H. Lichtenwalner. He attended St. Joseph grade school on Capitol Hill, Seattle Prep High School, and graduated with a degree in engineering from Seattle University. He continued his education in Boulder, CO.

Owen was in the Artillery Army at Fort Bliss, TX, from 1960 to 1962, with an additional seven years in the Reserve. No stranger to odd jobs and hard work, Owen began delivering newspapers for the Seattle Times and Post Intelligencer while still in grade school, worked in a bakery, unloaded banana boats, sold encyclopedias, was a plumbers helper, and worked in the Seattle Light Department, at the Bremerton Navy Yard, and for Boeing. He started working with Pacific Northwest Bell, and then moved to Missouri and later settled in Georgia while working with Contel and finally with Verizon.

Owen enjoyed golfing, tennis, hiking, music, and even wrote a book, seen through the eyes of their German Shepherd, Buck. More than anything, Owen loved God, his family, and his Catholic faith. He was a parishioner of St. Monica Catholic Church in Duluth, GA.

Married sixty years to his beloved wife, Susan, he is the father of six boys and one girl, has twenty-nine grandchildren, and seven great grandchildren (with two on the way). He is survived by his wife and children, one brother, Dr. Craig Lichtenwalner, and his only sister, Marion Henderson.

A funeral Mass will be held on Monday, March 11, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. at

Catholic Church of St. Monica with Father Rev. Jack Durkin serving as celebrant. Interment will be at Broadlawn Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Sunday, March 10, with Rosary being said at 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel of Flanigan Funeral Home. Flowers are accepted or donations may be made to the American Cancer Society or to the Wounded Warrior Project in memory of Owen C. Lichtenwalner.

“ The Lichtenwalner family are wonderful people and this is a great loss for them and all of us who knew them. Matt played baseball for me and he is a true gentleman and competitor. I nicknamed him "radar" because of his glasses, but the way he could track down fly balls in center it seemed he had radar to make those great catches. God bless the Lichtenwalner family.

“ Owen and I go way back. The world will miss him. Great guy in all matters. I think we wore our bicycles out in the early years but I think it gave him stamina for the fine life he built for himself, Susan and family. God bless y'all

“ Owen has been in my daily thoughts and prayers for the past several months, and I am confident that he will be praying for us now that he has made face to face contact with his beloved savior. Although my time has been limited over our life times he has been an inspiration to me as I have closely observed how he has lived his life. Owen will be missed by many, but his legacy will live for generations to come through the lives of his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Owen, rest in peace, God's faithful servant.

“ To our daughter-in-law, Jenny Lichtenwalner Hallas, our grandson Samuel Nicholas Hallas , and the entire Lichtenwalner family, we want to share our deepest condolences. Owen was a devoted husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather. Upon meeting him you sensed his strength of character and kindness and strong religious faith and values. One only has to meet the entire family to know what a vital part of his family he was. May he rest in God's Peace!

“ A tip of the hat.....to a true gentleman, an honorable, loving husband and exemplary father. His life was deeply rooted in his faith, and he was always quick with a mischievous grin and a warm welcome!
That was Uncle Owen, to me :-)
To wonderful Susan...what a remarkable legacy you two created! As such, Owen will never be far from you, as he will forever be in your memories and your heart.

“ Owen was one of the finest men we've ever known. He will certainly be missed. We are so grateful that he came into our lives a little over 9 years ago. Many good times with he and Susan and his wonderful family. His love for everyone was unconditional and most importantly he lived his faith by example. Our deepest sympathy and love to Susan, his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Such a wonderful legacy. He set a great example for all of us to follow. RIP Owen.
