

P. Kevin Walther

April 20, 1953 - April 20, 2020

P. Kevin Walther, age 67, died on April 20, 2020, at his home in Flowery Branch, Georgia. Kevin was born in Indianapolis on April 20, 1953. He graduated from Brebeuf High School, where he played basketball and achieved academic excellence. He then attended Brown University and studied public policy. After receiving his law degree from Indiana University, he specialized in residential and commercial real estate law in the Atlanta area from 1979 until his death. He was preceded in death by his mother, Kathryn “Kathie” Spahr Brocken, and her husband, Jacob “Jack” Brocken, and his father, Paul “Lefty” Walther. He is survived by his wife, Kimberly Hall Walther; his daughter, Amanda (Tony) Wagman and her two children, Caroline and Andrew; his step-mother, Catherine Matthews Walther; and his siblings, Kathleen Walther Crane, Chris Walther Polsgrove, Brian Walther, Maureen Walther Gumbert, Daniel Walther, David Koher, and their families. Memories of his gentle ribbing and competitive streak, playing great music and instigating epic dance parties, dressing up in costumes, cooking for and hosting family gatherings, digging in the garden, walking on the beach, his devotion to his daughter and her family, and his enduring love for his wife will sustain us in the days ahead. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the American Cancer Society or the High Museum of Art in Atlanta. A celebration of Kevin’s life will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ P. Kevin Walther

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM

“ Kevin was my Big brother and I miss him! He was so smart, always kind, boyishly entertaining, exceedingly generous, fabulous chef and host EXTRAORDINAIRE!! My heart goes out to his loving wife and soulmate, Kimberly. I will look for Kevin in each full moon as he watches over us all.

Chris Walther Schafer - May 23, 2021 at 12:13 PM

“ Cheeseboard Complete was purchased for the family of P. Kevin Walther.

May 07, 2020 at 05:00 PM

ML

“ We got to know Kevin 16 years ago, when we first moved to Roswell from another state. Kevin and Kimberly were so kind and welcoming and supportive, it made it much much easier for us to start our new life in Roswell. Kevin was a humble man, and yet his wit and intellect always was very apparent. And his famous love for cooking! And what fun it was to listen about their travels and visits to The High Museum of Arts! The joy of seeing Kevin's love and devotion to Amanda's family - that was wonderful to all! We are so glad Caroline and Andrew were able to grow up with such loving Grandfather! And now this mean disease took him away...We are eternally grateful for knowing Kevin and having spent some time with him and Kimberly. RIP, Kevin. Our sincere sympathy to Kimberly and Amanda with her family, and the rest of Kevin's family. We mourn with you all...Mike and Ariel Lurye

Mike and Ariel Lurye - May 07, 2020 at 04:40 PM