“ I am very sorry to hear of Pam's passing. My parents were good friends with the Buckley's growing up and my love of schnauzers originated in Pam's kitchen. My sympathies and prayers are with Bill, Jonathan, and the rest of the family.

“ *Bill,
You are in our hearts.
I know the first place Pam went was to the rainbow bridge to see all her old friends. I think she too is waiting.*

“ Pam was a very unique person, I am so proud to say she was my best friend and hard to realize she is not just an iPad away. We have very happy memories of vacations and visits with her and Bill and saw the special love they had together. Pam,.....from dog shows to the beach we will miss you!?”

“ What do you say... when it's too soon for this. She was fun and funny. She understood things that not everyone did. That mattered a lot to me,in our conversations. She fought fiercely and loved her family and friends. Had an artists eye, and loved her furry ones. I looked forward to our time together every few weeks. I miss her. I loved her. Love, hugs, and prayers to all. Kim Thomas

“ We will miss Pam tremendously. We had some very enjoyable times eating out with her and Bill. She could always make me laugh, and seemed like nothing could get her down. We pray for Bill and Jonathan and the rest of the family as they move forward that God will soften the pain and bring joy back into their lives. Ray Bailey

We never knew Pam, but it has an impact when a colleague loses a loved one.
