“ I rode as Sharon's assistant on the bus for eight years and she was one of my favorite ladies. We used to laugh as I teased her for being the "flasher" when she would leave the bus flashers on after crossing the railroad tracks. She loved her bus children, her own children and grandchildren with everything she was. We would regularly share stories on the bus once the kids were all dropped off. You could hear the pride in every word. I feel like I got to know all of her family through those conversations. She was an amazing lady and I will miss her greatly. I rejoice that she is back with her mom because I know how much she missed her! I am going to miss her and the world is a little less bright today without her in it. I am just glad that heaven got a new angel and I look forward to the day that I will see her again. I hope that it might be her driving the bus to pick me up on my day to go home to glory.
