“ Very sad to read the news of Patricia's passing. I remember her kindness and generosity of spirit when I was a elementary school friend of Doug's. Sending my deepest condolences.

“ I am saddened by Pat's passing. She wasn't my patient for a long time but she made an impact with her kind and compassionate nature, always asking about my mom's health during her visits rather than focusing on her own woes. She was a beautiful, sweet, classy, prayerful woman and a very good patient! I will miss her.

“ I only knew Patricia as a high school and college friend of Doug, but her softness, kindness, generosity and positivity was of the kind that makes an indelible impression on a person. Thoughts are with you Doug, and the family.

“ As close friends and classmates in New Sharon, IA, Patty and I spent so much time together growing up that we were part of each other’s families. I was honored when Patty asked me to be her maid of honor at her marriage to Jim. As adults, distance separated us, but Patty has always remained in my heart. Sally Swisher Herring

“ We were so blessed to have Pat a faithful member of the Believers class at Hebron. Pats love for others and for her family was very evident in all her conversations. She often assisted in leading the class in songs of praise with a beautiful voice. As a friend so close she was like family, we join you in your grief. Knowing she’s home with Jesus brings us great comfort. Jim and family we pray the peace and comfort that Jesus brings will continue with you for the days ahead. We love you, Glenda and Kent
