“ A beautiful soul inside and out. So many treasured memories that will live on - as will she.
Pat cherished all her children, her family and great friends. In spite of a few hiccups along the way, she moved on with strength doing the very best she could & never stopped finding the humor in life. In the end, she became the beautiful soul everybody loved. Rest well, sweet angel. You are so missed. My life is so much richer because I knew you.
