

Patricia "Pat" Pike

September 13, 1969 - June 11, 2026

Patricia "Pat" Pike, of Monroe, Georgia, passed away on June 11, 2026. She was born on September 13, 1969, in Monroe, Georgia, where she was raised and made her home.

Pat was married to Jerry Pike and was the daughter of Bessie and Ralph Peppers. She is survived by her sister, Glenda Culpepper, and Glenda's husband, Doug; her nieces, Heather Mader Schramm and Anna Culpepper; Heather's husband, Paul Mader Schramm; and their children, Harrison and Victoria. She is also survived by her cousin, Sherry Stapp, who was more like a sister to her, as well as her father-in-law, Billy Pike, and her sister-in-law, Theresa.

Pat was a devoted mother to her three children: Timothy Studdard, Tiffany Studdard, and Kalie Graham. Timothy is married to Nicole Holley, and they have a daughter, Aurora. Tiffany is engaged to Michael McCullough, and together they have a son, Charlie. Tiffany is also the mother of JR and Brailey, and Michael has a daughter, Loretta. Kalie is married to Christian Graham, and together they share their beloved fur babies: Indi, Tigger, Nova, Astro, Willow, and Sassy.

Pat had a wicked sense of humor and a spirit that was truly one of a kind. She was crazy, but she was a good one - the kind of person who made life more colorful just by being herself. She loved people-watching, laughing at the little things, and finding humor in moments others might have missed. She loved the beach, close friends, and the people who made life brighter, including her dear friends Teresa and Arlinda. She loved animals, and animals loved her right back. More than anything, Pat cared deeply for her family and dearly loved her grandchildren.

She will be remembered for her humor, her heart, her fierce love for her family, and the unforgettable way she made people feel. Pat's life was full of personality, laughter, and love, and those who knew her will carry her memory with them always.
