“ So sorry to hear my friend is gone. I really hate myself for not visiting her, like I used to when I lived close to her. It seemed I never had anytime when I moved to Jefferson. I'm really sorry. I met Pat at a job I was working at. We became friends the first day. We talked about anything, and we had lots of laughs. I could talk to her about anything. She was always there, good or bad. My sons & I loved that lady. They called her granny pat. She will be missed. MY condolences to her Children and family. God will help you through this.

“ *To my loving and wonderful grandmother: You have been a light in life like no other, I knew I could tell you anything in the world and you would never get mad or judge all you would do is listen and I thank you for that. You are the the most caring and loving person I know, I remember when I told you I was having twins how excited you were to have great granchildren, and when I told you about a third you got excited. I will always rememebr our long talks and when the kids would talk to you. I love you and you will alwyas be in my heart. I miss you so much. I know you are with pawapawl now may you be in peace.
I love you.*

“ I cant even begin to describe the hurt that I feel. I know that she is looking down on us and making sure we are doing what we are supposed to be doing. She was an awesome grandmother who loved her grandkids very much. I still remember the times when I would stay with her and we would stay up half the night talking about any and everything under the sun and wake up the next morning with still so much to say. I love you nomie and I know that no matter where I go or what I do you are there with me. You will always forever be in my heart.

“ My heart breaks over the death of Pasty. She was a sweet sister in law. We had many great times going camping when the kids were little. Loved going to her dad's place at the lake. She will be missed. Will be praying for you Vickie and Johnny and your families.
