“It’s hard to put into words the depth of gratitude Jayne and I feel for the life and friendship of Pat Brown and Laura. For over 40 years, Pat was more than a friend—he was a partner in faith, a fellow servant in the church in Stone Mountain area, and a man whose quiet strength and joyful spirit left a lasting imprint. Pat’s devotion to the Kingdom was evident in his years of service as an elder across multiple congregations. He led with humility, wisdom, and a heart that always sought to uplift others.

His love for Laura, his children, and grandchildren was unwavering—his family was his pride and joy, and it showed in every story he shared and every moment he cherished with them.

I have fond memories of Pat cruising in his beloved Corvette or encouraging others in their walk with Christ, Pat lived fully and faithfully. We are thankful for the legacy he leaves behind—a legacy of service, love, and deep spiritual conviction. His presence in our lives was a gift, and his impact will continue to ripple through the lives he touched.

Rest well, dear friend. You ran your race with grace, see you on the other side.

“I admired Pat Brown from the time I met him at a little church in Stone Mountain in the 1970's. He was an enthusiastic person, full of ideas, and made friends of almost everybody he met. We spent time at men's retreats and in many worship services. Pat and Laura shared a holiday with our family that I will never forget. He loved the Lord and was faithful to the end.
