“ *I am so sorry for your loss. Please except my deepest condolences. I am hoping that my words may be of some comfort to you and your family. Please take note of the words stated by the faithful man Job at (Job 14:14, 15): "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? . . . You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." This represents God's earnest longing and desire. Can we really believe the resurrection promise? Yes, there is no doubt that God is both willing and able to fulfill it. What does this mean for you? You have the prospect of being reunited with dead loved ones right here on earth but under very different conditions. “ The only thing bigger than Paul's huge arms was his huge heart & his love for his little girl. Always enjoyed talking with him when he visited the dealership. Rest in Peace Buddy. To Paul's parents & loved ones: You are all in our prayers. God bless you all as you have endured so much. Vernon, Ann & Ryan Jarrard

“ We are all so stunned and saddened by this terrible loss. A great father, friend, son and all round great person. We all ask why, but will never know how someone with seaming everything can have such sadness within. I hope is parents can find strength in god. I can not imagine the pain of losing two sons within a year. I will pray for little Alana who is too young to understand but will truly miss her beloved father. Russell and I loved Paul with our hearts.

“ This guy was the greatest friend (like a brother) to my son, Big Country(KYLE DUPREE). When my son was down and out of state, Paul drove all the way to get him and help,there was a bond that was like blood between them. The love and compassion that Paul showed to so many will so greatly be missed. I know my son will forever Love them and never forget what Paul and Luke did for him in his life.

Has a mother my heart breaks for All that loved Paul/Luke so much,I pray for God's hand to take hold to All that is in need, lift them up in the days ahead to feel his love. I would like to say "Thank You Paul from me, for taking the time to talk to me during those times I called on you in need to talk, the sweet talks to let me know he was o.k way back in time. May your days ahead be Forever in God's place. Peace be with you"

“ My condolences to the Burris family. "If a man die, shall he live again?" asked Job long ago. How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible right here on earth under the best conditions? Well, the Bible makes the promise: "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up" (Isaiah 26:19) The Bible also promise: The righteous themselves will possess the earth and reside forever upon it. May you find comfort knowing that you may see your loved one again.
