“ Linda, I am so sorry for your loss. You have my deepest sympathy. Please extend my sympathies to LeAnn. Just to refresh, Kelley Glover and I lived next to you on Trade Square West in Troy and you and I worked together in the Credit Dept. at Hobart on Grant St.....many years ago! As life goes, we all move in different directions! I had no idea where you were living, etc.. I am in Springboro, Oh.. Kelley and grandkids are still in Troy! Paul was such a good, kind man. I know he brought much love and happiness to you and LeAnn. Love and hugs to you gals. I'm keeping you close in thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Linda,

I was so sorry to read of Paul's death in the Dayton paper this morning. Wish I could see you in person to hug you and tell you how sorry I am for your loss. After a long marriage, I'm sure you have many good memories and they will bring you comfort in the days ahead. Glad Leigh Anne lives in Buford too. Family & friends help us get through the difficult times. I've thought of you often and am sorry we lost touch over the years, as I always treasured our friendship. I send my love & deepest sympathy to you and your family.
