“Paulette and I were friends since we were seven years old. She and I were in the same class at Stone Mountain Elementary. She moved away the next year to Tucker and I believe later to Austell. Over the years we wrote letters to each other and called a few times. Sometimes we would send pictures of ourselves, but we didn't get to see each other. One day my husband and I were at Cracker Barrel on Jimmy Carter Blvd having lunch. I was looking around in the store and this blonde lady came up to me and ask was I Patricia Puckett. I said, "I was." She told me that she was Paulette. We had not seen each other over 28 years. I was so shocked and happy to see her. She had know who I was from the pictures that I had sent to her. We had so much fun that day chatting with each other. Over the years we would talk to each over the phone and we went to hear Paulette and John sang at different churches. We went to Paulette and John's Wedding Anniversary Party. We talked many , many times on the phone. It is so hard for me to believe that she is gone. I will miss my dear sweet friend.
