“ When I first met Peggy, she was smiling and when I last saw Peggy, she was smiling. We met in my first few years of teaching. I was moved to kindergarten and she was my partner. Little did I know what I was in for...What a partner she was! I have to say, I learned more from Peggy's presence and knowledge in the classroom than all of my college education. She had such a calm, gentle presence...a true teacher at heart. But, there was way more to her. Her heart also belonged to her family and friends. A dedicated wife, mother, sister, daughter, and friend...from hugs and kisses to Christopher after school at Dyer, chatting and planning Jennifer's next step after high school, hours on the road for swimming, caring for her mother-in-law, traveling home to see family, dinners with friends, Sonny's basement things, cooking, and taking time to laugh...good belly roll laughs...the uncontrollable kind :o). These are just a few of my precious Peggy memories. Peggy will be greatly missed, but her fingerprints are all over this earth. Praying for peace and comfort for your family...

“ Peggy was such a sweet, positive, upbeat shining light in the lives of all who knew her! I'm a better person for having her as a friend and I'm so blessed that she was a part of my life.
We met Peggy through her son Chris and his precious family, Danielle, Arabella, and Sweet Charlotte, and through her very special sister, Brenda Grimes. We have and will continue to pray for their comfort and peace in the days ahead. God bless you all. Jerri Dunaway

“ To Peggy's Family:

I met Peggy at SHUMC during a Bible study last year or so. She was friendly and upbeat. We attended other classes together at the church, lastly of which was our ladies' Sunday School class called SMASH (Sisters ministering and serving HIM). Even in the midst of her trials and illness, Peggy remained strong and upbeat. I know that she was one of God's own and is now in Heaven with Him. That being said, I will really miss her smiling face, and I will continue to pray for comfort and peace for your family.
