“ Penny was a friend of mine up in Mill Ridge in the NC Mountains. She would just love to be in the cool air with her Mountain Friends. She always helped with the social events at Mill Ridge. You knew if Penny was there the food would be delicious! We were Pink Sisters. I had Breast Cancer first and then sadly to her. Penny had a smile on her face no matter what was happening to her. She truly was a trooper and will be missed deeply by me. Till we meet again Penny. Miss and love you!

“ My love, prayers and condolences are being sent to all who knew and adored Penny. She had southern hospitality down to a "T" She was devoted to family and friends and a true Christian lady who had such grace and charm and could cook up an award winning meal with no effort.

Her beautiful smile will stay with me always.

Here in New England, where Cardinals, "red birds" can be a bit rare, I will know her spirit is near when I am fortunate enough to see one of these beautiful birds.

She is now in Heaven planning some great get togethers with people who have gone before her.

With much love to Penny and her family.

“ Shedding tears of sadness but remembering the fun and love from this wonderful, special woman. She was the best of the best. A special lady who we all loved being around. Sharing time with Penny was always a blessing. Her kind and gracious spirit was obvious to all who were lucky enough to be around her. I looked forward to seeing her at our get togethers. And, when we shared food, her dishes were the most scrumptious. I have several of her recipes, and will think of her every time I make one!

My condolences to Jim, the children and the many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. You are in our thoughts and prayers. We love you and will be here to support you in your loss.

Love to you all, Jill Mashburn

I didn't know Penny or her immediate family but I see that her passing has opened a well-spring of kindness from so many friends. I'd like to add my respect for her to the few that I know. She must have been so special
