“ Perry was a awesome friend. Even though we both attended Buford there was 6 years between us so like most I connected with him on Facebook which kept me smiling. As we traded laughs and messages he became a great friend. Always encouraging me when I was down or just talking for hours on the phone sharing laughs. A lot of times I'd text and say where are you, he'd say the gym or if somewhere close....I'd say I'm on the way to grab a hug. When I saw the news on Facebook that my friend passed, what a sadness. I'm sure he has transitioned into his new body with no more pain and knows all the secrets of the great unknown. You are certainly missed, and was so loved you taught us all a laugh goes a long way....and you stayed true to your beliefs and to your home town. Buford misses you! Goodbye....for now.

“ Perry was all things Buford and know by most as “Buford Royalty”. Perry truly cared for his friends and would follow you home even if he’d had 1 too many. Perry lived his life by a simple code “do the right thing”.
I will miss Perry but I will never forget him. Thanks for being my friend Brother!!

“ I never actually met Perry except as a Facebook Friend. I loved his sense of humor and looked forward to seeing his posts. He seemed so full of life that it was unreal to hear of his passing. I don't know who is going to fill his shoes!

“ Perry lived behind my grandparents Chester Lee "Slim" and Edie Mae Hulsey. My brother Paul and I used to visit with Perry and Pam quite often in the summer. My dad was a preacher and my mother a teacher and they were always going to meetings and such that Paul and I didn't want to attend so we were sometimes there for weeks at a time. Perry and his family took us in and we were so glad to have someone our age to spend the days with. Perry was a good person as all of his family is. I'm very sorry for your loss Pam. Love you!

“ One would be hard-pressed to find another person who loved Buford quite like Perry. He was a unique character who loved the people around him and loved making people laugh. I looked forward to seeing what meme or joke he would post next on Facebook. I was shocked when I saw another friend post that Perry had passed away. I simply could not believe it. He will be missed by many.

To his family and friends, my thoughts and prayers are with you as you go through this difficult time. God bless you all! Buford lost someone special while heaven gained someone special.

*Much love,

I attended school with Perry throughout the years and until we graduated on '80. Although I haven't lived in Buford for decades, I followed Perry on FaceBook, he would have called me a secret stalker! But I enjoyed his sense of humor and his take on politics, which I always agreed with 100% of the time. His love of country, his love of family and his love of Buford was always first and foremost in his post. He was good man! In honor of Perry I am donating to Trump's reelection, I know he would love that. I wish peace to his sister, his family and his many friends. I also wish peace to his beloved Buford. Sincerely, Beth Ivey

Perry was one of a kind, talented, gifted and to the surprise of some, fairly athletic! I remember as a young and faithful member of the 1st Methodist choir he was the singer on the men's row who would almost hit the note, but sometimes far enough off to convince us he was tone deaf. Then one day at around age 15 he actually began hitting the pitch very well, surprising all of us. He conquered that challenge, and that was how he dealt with life in his many real and difficult challenges. What a great friend.

Big Perry was one of my best friends in high school and thereafter, before we could drive we would talk on the phone for at least an hour. When we were of age and could drive he would be my date on Friday and I would be his date on Saturday. Perry was my go to buddy that I will never forget. We were so close he was in my wedding and he told me he had never had so much fun at a wedding. He will be missed dearly by me, my family and the family of the BUFORD FAMILY!

Perry was always an organizer. If you wanted to have a reunion or a get together, he would always be the point man to make it happen, the social media guy to notify everybody about it. I think he might be the one who started the Buford memorial page. He sat next to me in school for years, we were seated alphabetically, so we were always together. We went to literary meets together, he was really good on a typewriter. I got a C in typing class. He was surprisingly good at so many things, yet as humble a guy as you would ever meet. He loved many and was loved my many. He will be missed by many as well. We love you Perry. Rest in peace my friend.
