“ I lost My Best Friend and i know he is in Heaven and is no longer suffering nor in pain nor having any troubles of this world I should be SHOUTING praises of Glory and happiness for my BEST FRIEND Phil. Do not get me Wrong I am happy he is in heaven with our lord and savior Jesus Christ. I am being so selfish my heart still hurts I miss Calling him or him calling me especially during sports seasons for example the Atlanta Braves are having their best Season in many years. Georgia Bulldogs were ranked 5th in the nation and lost to Clemson and then this week you have the NFL season starting that means alot of Atlanta Falcon talk and Pittsburgh Steeler talk ect..... see I already miss Phil so much that it still hurts I already miss the phone calls the plans we had or things we wanted to do. i just wanted to say this. Mr and Mrs Presley thank you for giving this horrible world such a wonderful gift even if it was for only a short 41 years. thank you and may god bless you.

“ With sincerest heartfelt sympathy to Phillips family, loved ones and his friends. What a true and untimely loss. I've known Philip since my days at Norcross High School. I've never known anyone to say anything but good things about Philip. He was just that kind of guy. May God and our lord Jesus accept him with open arms into Heaven. Amen

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. I was truly saddened to hear of your loss. Philip was more than a co-worker to me he was a great friend. He made my work day better every day simply just by being there and always being witty, funny, considerate, smart, and a great listener. I have many fond memories of him and will treasure them forever. Mr. and Mrs. Presley there is no doubt that you raised a wonderful man and I was blessed to have known him.

“ John 10:27-29 "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand."

“ Even though I hadn't seen Philip for a long time, he was always so sweet and quiet. But when he did speak, he made me laugh. He will be missed. The family is in my thoughts and prayers.
