“ Hello Abbott family, I just heard of Rachel's passing today and my heart goes out to you all. Through grade school and in girl scouts, Rachel was such a sweet friend to me. I have such fond memories of sleepovers, birthday parties, trips to Savannah and Six Flags with her. I always thought she had a contagious laugh, a sweet smile and a kind heart. I will be praying for comfort and peace during this time for you all.

“ Dear Johnson Family:

I know this is a difficult time for you, please accept my sincere condolences. "Blessed be the God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." (2 Corinthians 1:3)

"Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice..." (John 5:28)

I look forward to the day when all of us will see our dear loved ones again!

*Again, my condolences,
Shelly R.*

“ I am so sorry to hear of Rachael passing. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Allison just know my heart goes out to you. You, Rachael and your mom were very special to me. I was so blessed to be a part of your life as you girls were growing up to be the beautiful loving people you are and have always been. Your mom and dad were truly blessed with the two of you. God be with you all in this truly sad time. Love and Prayers, Mrs. Jane

“ My condolences to the family and friends. There are many differences in the world but we all have one common enemy,death. There is one thing we can all take comfort and hope in and that's God's promises found in the Bible. He says about this enemy, "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing."-1corinthians 15:26. He also holds out a hope for those we have lost at John 5:28,29. I hope you find comfort and peace in these verses.
