“ I tried to find ways to make her laugh. One time I pretended to be a dog and howled happy birthday to her and she smiled. I talked to her about this and that and I told her she was a good listener. I told her when she gets to heaven she can tell Jesus everything she couldn't tell us. I told her she could pray in her heart and Jesus would hear her. I like to think that she did that. I miss her. I wonder if God gives us special people so we can learn how to be better people. Rachel's Mom is an awesome Lady.
