“ Sister Drawhorn, I don't know if you remember, on more than one occasion I had to stop by at Dulles; to get fatherly advice and direction from Brother Drawhorn. He and I would sit in the front room where we could talk in private. But before we would begin, you would bring us Coke in those ice cold aluminum tumblers of yours, that had to be wrapped with a paper towel so we could handle them. Much appreciated on those hot and humid Louisiana afternoons! My mother was right in calling you a "sweet somebody". Ralph is in Jehovah's memory and ours. Hope to reconnect with all y'all in the New World.

“ My dearest Drawhorn family,
My thoughts and prayers go out to you during this painful time. The sting of death will soon be taken away forever. We look forward to Revelations 21:3,4 being fulfilled, no more tears, death, nor pain be anymore.
Love,
Monica Geisendorff -Guillory

“ Dear Liz, Todd & Pam, Scott, and grand-kids: On behalf of the Fournet and Vice families please accept my sincere condolences on the death of Ralph. He truly had a positive influence on our Spirituality and was a joy to serve with. Personally, Ralph studied the Bible with me in 1985 in the Central-Lafayette, La. congregation. My most vivid memories from our studies are of Ralph's loving, kindly demeanor that made the straight-forward counsel he gave easy (or at least EASIER ;-)) to accept. He would have officiated when Sallie & I got married... but he came down with Pneumonia! And I have to say this: The PICTURE of him on this Obituary brings back so many fond memories... because it is that SAME Ralph SMIRK he would always get when he was about to deliver one of his classic 'zingers', usually one-liners, and ALMOST always very funny. (That's why he'd get the smirk!... 'cuz he'd start grinning about it before he could get it out! Yes, cherished memories from a cherished part of my life. And like T-Bob said.. I look forward to seeing him again in Paradise, when we'll get him back... brand new again! Love, Charles Fournet
