Ipoker, titan poker is and always will be a FUCKING JOKE. So much so I've been able to call the river card as it hits! It's easy - work out the one card your opponent needs to beat your hand and call it as it lands - it's so pathetic I have to laugh or I will cry.

I hate Ipoker, the world largest scam rigged etc in da world, im from spain, 5 years 12 daily hours playing this rigged shit.

You're doing good work , online poker is rigged ! I'm professional player played million hands live/online poker , and can approv that Ipoker Skins rigged shit . Hanads maked by system to improve pot side, by that way they make million $ yaerly more then should . By doing that they fuck-up poker game , game become more gambling style, then skill game. “ now bots are running in 10max, 6max, HU, CASH, MTT & SNG, they are now even playing Omaha and Omaha Hi-Lo.

Their stance when presented with hard facts was to deny any case for said player being bots, in spite of pretty damning evidence of a group of players all playing with the exact same playing style and all having near identical statistics. Maybe they're right, Perhaps they are right, maybe someone got hold of Phil Ivey DNA and cloned a group of elite super poker humans who can play 48 hour sessions and play strategically sound game theory with absolute emotional control.

Personally I suspect the former.

If they don't listen to the players, then perhaps the skins themselves will have to take the issue up with Ipoker

I would suggest sticking with reputable sites and stay away from the above, unless of course you wish to play bots.

*I-poker run by crooks,bad beats unf---ing-believable.
stay away from this network bot infested and the rng is shocking..slows down at the river to pick the card to beat you when your 96% to win hand.*

I asked online support why when I was 96% to win hand at showdown and only won 30-35 % over 1000s of hands how this was possible,replied with the usual bullsh-- our rng is tested and totally random.lot of f---ing sh--.

“ I write this today as tomorrow when we visit and bid you a final good bye I will not be able to speak. I can best describe you as a kind & caring person, you are going to be missed both by your family & friends (you may note i did not includecustomersas your customers were your friends and you always treated them as such, that is why I will never swing a leg over the bike again without thinking of you & wishing you were along for the ride..... But at the same time maybe you will be..... If only in my heart.

Check out the new roads Ralph I hope to meet up again for a great ride on the other side.

God speed Ralph..... Jack Jett & family

“ Ralph was one in a million. A true and trusted friend, ready to help whenever called upon. He was patient, sincere, kind and caring. There are no words to express my condolences to his family. He is gone, but will never be forgotten.
