“ Kim, Brent, Ryan....I wish you much peace and joy in your loving memories; Ralph is one of the finest people I have ever known. I'm a better person from having had him in my life; his love of family and friends was evidenced by the way he lived his life and treated everyone he encountered. While I'm confused as to why God called him home so soon, I'm personally taking comfort in knowing he's playing golf with Jesus and Ed.....:o) I affectionately called him "Fact-to-minute" anyone that doesn't understand that did not know this amazing man well.....God is good and He doesn't make mistakes....

“ My sister Karen is married to Ralph's brother Bill. I was married to the Michelle Alhambra who lived next door to the Hardie's. What a cast of characters on Aberdeen Street. Even though I didn't know Ralph until later in my teen years, the adventures will always stick with me. Between the Hardie's, Alhambra's, Alhquist and others, we raised quite a ruckus. He will be missed. Rest in peace Ralph.

“ Ralph is my first cousin. Ralph's father was brother to my mother Mary-Em. I'm Mary Robin Howard. Thank you for providing a forum through which I am able to say what a neat handsome guy Ralph was. We only had brief times to visit because my father was in the Army. When we showed up at the Hardie home, though, it was like we'd never left. The Hardie-Howard clan totaled 13 kids, all of us rambunctious and we so totally enjoyed our times together. That's how I remember Ralph...smiling, happy, playful, present. I believe he is missed terribly because he is loved completely. You have my vigilant prayer.
