“ Dear Virginia, Dianne and Connie:
Thomas and I are deeply saddened by the news of Ralph's passing. We are so very sorry. Please remember that you and the girls are in our prayers and thoughts. God sees and knows everything. He is with you right now. He will take care of all his children. When I think about Ralph, I think about this poem.

LIFE WELL LIVED. A life well lived is a precious gift, of hope and strength and grace, from someone who has made our world a brighter, better place. It's filled with moments, sweet and sad with smiles and sometimes tears, with friendships formed and good times shared, and laughter through the years. A life well lived is a legacy, of joy and pride and pleasure, a living, lasting memory our grateful heart's will treasure. Author Unknown.

Ralph was a good man who lived a good life. Loving his family, friends and his Lord. His legacy just can't be any better than that in my book. We will miss him and his huge smile and his kindness.

Praying for God's peace and loving support in your time of grief. Thomas and I are here when and if you need us, always.
