“He was always such a sweet person. I have great memories of him hanging out with his friends eating pizza, having fun at his barn. His sweet mom cooking and his dad's sweet smile. His family taught him to be a giving sweet person, and life long friend. No matter how long passed he had a hug and a smile.”

“ How to describe one of the best, nicest, greatest guy to ever know? Well, I think I just did. If you needed anything, anytime for any reason, Hugh would be there. He and William have been friends since high school. I remember riding the school bus with he and Joan when we were kids. Then as adults, we all hung out at Cora and Ray’s all the time. Spent many a night sleeping on the couch while the guys were working on cars, tractors, heaters, anything that needed fixing. Or hunting! Oh my! Best buds for sure! Lots of great memories! Hugh, you are missed already! 💔 we love this family. You guys are special for sure! Anything you need, just ask. 🙏 praying for you all!
