

Raymond Biderman

October 28, 2019

Raymond Biderman, age 86, of Bethlehem, GA passed away Monday, October 28, 2019. He was born on June 29, 1933. He met his future wife Joan at Fort Hamilton High School. Shortly after their graduation, they were engaged, and married at Our Lady of Perpetual Help. Raymond enlisted in the United States Air Force during the Korean War and served for four years. When he returned home he attended Queens College and graduated with a degree in Applied Science. He then gained employment with the NY Telephone Company. Raymond started as a lineman, and worked his way to be Manager of The Manhattan South Division. After 32 years, with perfect attendance, he retired. Raymond was an active member of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary. In 1979, he was Auxiliarist of The Year, Flotilla 1-3. He served as Commander from 1980-1984. Raymond and Joan, his wife of sixty-five years, had seven children and special plus one, Sirinity. They raised their children in the Catholic Faith. He enjoyed boating, from power boats, to sailing a 26' Sailboat, with his family on Long Island. Raymond had a warm loving heart, a great sense of humor, the best advice, and was proud of all of his children.

Survivors include wife, Joan; children, Barbara and Curtis Barteau, North Carolina, Alice Sneed, Dallas, GA, Raymond and Kathy Lynn Biderman, Mt. “ The things you did to show you cared . The sound of your voice. The wisdom you shared. Advice I will never forget. The way that you lived and examples you set . The best father a daughter could have . You were called home to be with our Lord . With Gods grace and mercy we will someday be together again . Love you Dad , Kathy

Kathy Buschor - November 07, 2019 at 12:00 AM

“ My prayers are with the whole family at this difficult time, that God's comfort and strength may rest upon you. I also pray for the repose of Raymond's soul, that God might draw him unto heaven.
