“ When I transferred to the Suwanee Kroger in 2000, Becky was one of the first people to introduce herself to me and welcome me. We had a lot of fun together, until I retired 5 years ago. Becky was always laughing, clapping and enjoying herself and she was a joy to be around. She loved her Kroger customers and they loved her. I know her sweet spirit carried her as she took the party to Heaven on Monday. We can sure use more people like Becky McBryant in this world. My condolences to all who knew her.

“ I worked at Kroger when Becky was hired and had the joy of watching her "blossom". She was very shy in her new surroundings but within 3 or 4 months her shyness was gone!! Becky knew everyone in the Buford- Sugar Hill area. Dan Michael, the store manager; realized he had a goldmine in Becky and just let her run with it. She spoke to all and helped all shop then help them at the register. What a sweet person!! I am honored to have spent so much time with both She and Joan. Rest in peace Becky

“ A Tribute to Becky McBryant

The first time I laid eyes on Becky, she and her parents had just arrived from Germany where her dad had finished a military assignment. Grandma and Grandpa McBryant as well as I, an overly excited teenage aunt, were getting our first look at the new baby girl! I remember that beautiful baby that looked more like a doll with lots of dark hair and sparkling blue eyes!

As this little girl grew she added a smile that was captivating and it got bigger 2 years later when she got the little brother she dearly loved and admired. Through their growing up years they enjoyed returning to visit grandma and grandpa especially when all their cousins came and they could create a little fun and mischief and still keep a step ahead of grandma's switch!

Years later when I was living in Hawaii Becky, now in her early 20s, came for an extended visit with my family and many of the cousins who were living there—Rick, Vicki, Pam, Ramona, Linda Sue, and my kids Loren, Julie and Greg. Hawaii suited Becky just fine. She loved hitting all the sandy beaches, climbing mt. trails, eating shave ice and just laughing ourselves silly!

Yesterday I asked some of the cousins what they remembered most about Becky? Without hesitation they described her as always positive, caring, thoughtful, loved to laugh and she seemed to have an inner joy!

Later, Becky visited us again when we moved to Ca. I noticed something special about her—she had no problem mingling with the tourists and naturally viewed them as friends. Our family loved Becky and our son Loren, who happened to have a birthday on Oct. 31st, knew he would always get a card from Becky—she never forgot! He will miss that this year! In recent years we are living in Fl. and Becky would often text me especially during hurricane season to check on us.

None of us could miss the fact that Becky loved God with all of her heart and if you had a minute she would tell you about her wonderful church, the pastor, and all the sweet people she loved. Becky lived a life worthy of Christ's calling and throughout the different stages of her life she left her footprints on the hearts of those she met. May those prints remind us to allow God's love to shine through us and into the lives of those we meet.

“ I worked with Becky years ago she was such a sweetheart. All the kids that came through the line that she was working at always got a hug, balloon and a blue sucker. Rest in peace. Prayers to her family.
