

Rebecca "Becky" Jane Clark Williamson

September 14, 1948 - December 4, 2025

Rebecca Jane "Becky" Williamson (Clark), age 77, passed away peacefully on December 4, 2025, at 11:33 pm, in Sugar Hill, Georgia. Born on September 14, 1948, in Leakesville, Mississippi, Becky's life was marked by deep faith, enduring love for her family, and a passion for nurturing both people and plants.

Becky graduated from Leakesville High School in her hometown of Leakesville, Mississippi. She later pursued further education to earn a certificate in selling insurance and also became a master gardener—two paths that reflected her dedication to both professional growth and personal passions.

Her love for gardening was more than a hobby; it was an extension of her generous spirit. Becky found joy and peace working in her yard, where she cultivated vibrant flowers and lush greenery with care and devotion. Her garden was not only a reflection of her skill but also of the warmth she brought into every space she touched. When not tending to her plants, Becky enjoyed watching Hallmark movies, Atlanta Braves, Auburn football and spending time with her beloved church community and her family. Her faith was central to her life, and she cherished the fellowship of her church family and friends deeply.

Becky's legacy is carried forward by those who loved her most. She is survived by her daughter Kimberly Suzanne Peters; granddaughter Jenna Nicole Peters; son-in-law Douglas Scott Peters; sister-in-law Flora Elizabeth Clark; many nieces; great nieces; nephews; great nephews; and friends. Her role as a devoted mother and grandmother brought immense joy to her life and left lasting impressions on those closest to her.

She was preceded in death by her beloved son James Lee “Jim” Curtis II; brothers Jephtha David Clark and Howard Garner Clark; sisters Evelyn Ladonis Clark Manasco, Glendean Clark Bennett, Magdeline Lois Clark King, and Alvonette Sue Clark Spurlock; as well as her parents Napoleon Ree Clark and Vergie Lee Clark.

Becky’s life was a testament to God’s faithfulness. She lived with grace, kindness, and unwavering devotion to those around her. A devoted wife, mother, grandmother, aunt, great aunt, cousin, friend, and her daughter's best friend—she will be remembered for the love she gave so freely.

No Funeral services or memorial will be held at my mom's last wishes.

May Rebecca Jane “Becky” Williamson’s (Clark) memory bring comfort to all who knew and loved her.
